

Last updated February 2020

There are many websites devoted to and offering advice about elective home education. These are a selection of some of them. The websites were correct as of the date the above. Websites do change from time to time and it may be more appropriate to do a search via a search engine.

The inclusion of an organisation or a website is not an endorsement. You should talk with the individual organization or review the website to see if they will be able to provide the service / support you or your child needs.

If you find a website does not work please email ehe@camden.gov.uk

<https://www.better.org.uk/leisure-centre/london/camden>

Information about sport and leisure centres in Camden.

Camden Sports Development Team or

<https://www.camden.gov.uk/children-young-people> or

<https://www.camdenrise.co.uk/get-involved>

Information about sport activities across the borough.

Other resources

www.bbc.co.uk/schools/gcsebitesize/pe

Sports videos, performance and basic anatomy and physiology.

www.getbodysmart.com

Free online textbook about human anatomy and physiology primary age workbooks.

If get asked why is your child not at school during school hours please contact us at the email above and we can give you a letter to confirm you child is home educated.